Roberta Sheffield began riding at the age of six, and due to her dual Canadian/British nationality, has had the opportunity to train and compete in both Canada and Great Britain. Sheffield started her international career by representing Great Britain, but is now an integral part of the Canadian Equestrian Team.

Joining the Canadian Para-Dressage Team in 2013, Sheffield spent the next two years achieving impressive results internationally with multiple mounts, including Wonderboy, Bindro T and Double Agent. Her 2014 season culminated by representing Canada at the FEI World Equestrian Games in Normandy, FRA, where she earned top five results and helped Canada finish eighth as a team.

The 2015 season saw Sheffield focus on Double Agent, or “Darcy”, as she’s known in the barn. The team excelled all across the board, highlighted by multiple wins at the CPEDI 3* Mulhouse, FRA.

A dedicated athlete, Sheffield trains at a gym an average of six times per week, on top of riding, training and coaching. She also holds a Politics degree from Aston University in England.
